I posted this on my own forums at www.thechosenmen.co.uk to see what kind of response it got...my clan full of nuttahs were impressed so i thought you'd all like to hear...

My plan is to turn one of our snipe servers into a huge party ground with the maximum number of people we can allow.

We then get everyone to line up and dance around the map in a huge train going

   1...2...3...jump

just like the conga

It will be passworded and BR'd to stop anyone messing and we will have "photographers" taking screenies.

How about it guys, a renegade party?

Sounds like fun to me.

And who are you to judge?? Whats the matter cant u dance??

Its going ahead anyways.

Looks like it will be starting at 9pm GMT on Sat 17 May,
So watch the "snipe" servers for a game with a difference
If any of you have any skinning skills check our site out for some information on a skin or two we would like made.

Hope to see you all there...

Hell yeah. THat would be one great map to do it on.

Oh yeah, and don't mind Havocman, KritonUK. There is always someone that has to fuck up a good post.

I was going to make a video before using the helipad on the roof of the HoN as a dance floor, and have Hotwire and Sakura dancing with the extras-Raveshaw.

Maybe someone should point out to Havocman that having two left feet shouldnt hinder u in rene....

Now that we've voted for the time...
(if u didnt vote better get to http://www.thechosenmen.co.uk fast)

I figure that the map is the next thing to vote on...i dont have carnage club...but that can be solved quite quickly.
Islands/canyon are two normal maps that have been suggested.

Ill create a poll later but if anyone has any other suggestions it is always possible to add comments to a poll...and there are the forums.

Im hoping plenty of community input will make this event successful...and if anyone has any ideas for future events...tell us!!

Hehe pure brilliance...
Anyone who wants to record/take screenies or skin for us is welcome.

One question tho why was the link posted 3 times...i only looked at the first are they all different?

Quote:How about you guys use Walls for the map and all line up on top of the plateau.
Great idea...we'll have a go!!

I also forgot to mention that there will be a teamspeak rc2 server running for everyone to join...so that we can get our timing right
