Darkness Server has been converted back to a sniper server. Forget all maps they are no longer being used all maps are just normal sniper friendly maps.

That map is full of vis glitches everywhere. Anyone would think the creator used walls and then made it into a flying map the state that the vis is in. Also the recon bikes don't actually do much for gameplay, on the 20 player server I was on Nod had 4 recons then GDI walked in with an APC and owned the base as they had no defence.

Garbage = American word for rubbish. So the map is rubbish.

I knew it.

I warned him, he didn't want to listen to me.

He even lied saying that he was about to ask you.

And you don't set up something using someone's propriety/name without his autorisation.

Does that make it right? No, and that's where the distinction between right and wrong comes in.

You'd think most humans would have that sense.

It would be kool if you could get permisson from Crimmy to have it as an offical n00bstories server and have some community approved maps .

I agree with ACK about walls reloaded.

If there was something that you could do would you bother wasting the time on every n00b that come along and claimed to own a n00bstories server.

I wouldn't, I would get someone else to do it for me .

DarkDemin, here are my suggestions for a replacement to Walls Reloaded.

ACK's Tropics
Ingrownlip's Hangmans Canyon
ACK's Beach
Ingrownlip's Duel Death
PiMuRho's Gigantomachy
SomeRhino's Conquest Winter
Scarface's Alpine

You can find the followings at <http://www.renmaps.com>

It's not that I'm against a n00bstories server, but my (currently defunct) sniper server is more of a "n00bstories server" than any other. I just don't know you well enough to let you represent my site.

Here is the new map pack we will be using to prevent n00bs from buying beacons.

Sniper wars

also if you would like to moderate go to irc.n00bstories.com/#darkness_serv
