Lol... You're kidding right? Find more than one (or at least one) thread in which I STARTED flaming or attacking anyone. Simple involvment where I'm replying to someone else who is attacking or flaming me doesn't count [edit: defending someone in a thread doesn't count either].

Flame War Incedent #1: http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=6235

It all started with ack and his negitivity.He can never be positive about any mod or model thats not his making.

That topic was turned personal by you, and the flaming was started by CaptKurt. Find the topic "Back to Topic", read that. The only thing ACK did was express his opinion that there are already alot of tutorial sites and it would be almost pointless to make more, everyone automatically jumped him for posting in that thread, it wouldn't matter what he posted.

xSeth2k2x
Flame War Incedent #2:
http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=6249

he does it agin.

Are you serious? Have you even read ACK's replies to that thread? Have you even read anything in that thread? CaptKurt posted that thread to mainly discredit and blame a "flame war" that he himself started on ACK.

xSeth2k2xFlame War Incedent #3: http://www.n00bstories.com/renforums/viewtopic.php?t=6252 lol... You obviously have no idea what a flame war is. Correcting someone's grammar and spelling do not equate to a "flame war".

I can't put it better than SP. CaptKurt started most of those. I'm sorry if you get easily offended, but you have to understand ACK points things out, because he is the best at what he does.

If he had said that within the last year (There was like 40 pages, than the forums were cleaned and it went down to around 10) or so on the old forums it would still be on these forums. Remember, they transfered all of several of the forums to these forums a while ago.

And just because he was correcting grammar and spelling more harshly on the old forums, still doesn't equate to flaming.

xSeth2k2xI quit because of this exact reason i come back a year later and see things are the same old way

Y'know, this is the same reason I quit too. Today someone asked me to come back. He said things have improved much, people are more friendly. now that I'm here visiting again I've realised nothing has changed and after reading some 30 threads around this forum I still dont wanna be here. It's not worth trying to mod Renegade for most of these ungratful little brats.
Keep it up guys, the community will be dead within the year.

What you need to learn to do is to stop flaming left, right and center. If someone makes somthing constructive for Renegade, even if they're just starting out, dont great it with "oh that looks shit" or "that's crap, you're a n00b aint ya". If ya keep going like that people just wont bother trying and you will have no new maps or mods and thats it. Dead Renegade.
Instead try suggesting improvments to the persons projects. The best examples I've seen were posted by Dante, for example:
Quote:remember the engine is awesome, but don't waste all your poly's on moving objects, keep them for eyecandy rather than for vehicles, you can cut that model down to 900 polys and retain its detail through the skin.
here he's suggesting to put more effort into rationing out of polys and putting more detail into skins. This is good advice. Saying "oh, that's high poly, that's gonna lag the game" is not good advice, it's more like stating the obvious and is more likly to spark an argument.

One last thing I must say, stop flaming people because of their online grammar!! People make mistakes, people speek other languages, people may be 8 years old or may not have l337 7Yp1n6 5k1LL5 or whatever, DONT FLAME THEM FOR IT! It makes them feel bad and they probably wont come back! Moderators have a duty to keep posts like this off the forums!

Dont get me wrong, I'm not flaming whoever moderates (if anyone does) these forums, but a little moderation of this place would improve it in an unprecidented scale. Moderators have the power to stop arguments when they're just starting by locking threads, or making the place better by deleting arguments that have taken place. A forum this size would take 1 moderator no more than half an hour each day to keep "clean and tidy".

Well, that is all. I can only hope someone with power notices this post and starts to improve this place instead of this post just disappearing into oblivion. It wont take much to make this forum a nice one to visit. But if it stays as it is, it's not the place I would wanna visit again. sorry.

Yes, it is, because your stupidity should not be tolerated in the world.

As for you, killakanz, good riddance. You made nothing, you did nothing, and you left. Don't come back again, please. Spare us all your tremendously heart-breaking accounts of how we all mentally assfucked you.

K... how many people have to keep telling us that the community will be gone in one year??! I've heard it from pretty much a month after the release of Renegade and it's just as annoying now. Unless you can give an exact date, to the day, I think that anyone claiming the community will be dead should recieve an immediate ban from the forum.

As for this topic though... maybe I should print it off. I need to go to the toilet and I'm all out of paper. :rolleyes:

Shows how much you know. I helped lots of people and I still do. Just because I released just 1 map (bet you didn't know about that, I wonder if it's still on cnchq.de after all this time...) doesn't mean I did nothing.
I guess your post just goes to prove another point. People can be helpfull in a community, not just release as much stuff as poss, but you wouldn't know that.
