I would like to tell you that it is real, but it wont ruin nothing at all, you can get it at http://www.i_want_to_be_banned.com then register and login to see the hidden area called Porjects, then just download it and install like it says on the topic.

You want to be banned? Blazer already evaluated it as YET ANOTHER clickbot that's even worse than the rest because you have to run it in WINDOWED mode.

TheDragonactually... i'm not to clear on what a click bot is.

Clickbots essintally auto-click for you when a certain part of the screen turns to a certain color.

In this case: If your crosshair went red, the clickbot will click for you. So if you have a sniper rifle, all you need to do is move your mouse all over the screen and watch people beg for mercy......
