CDS is opening it's Renegade fan page tonight (hawaiian time tonight, it's morning for some of you, and so on) and is looking for anyone who can contribute anything to the site. Wether it be fan fiction, fan art, maps without hosting, whatever. We'll host it, so long as it has our approval (which doesn't take much...if at first you don't succeed, we bribe easy).
The site is right NOW http://24.69.62.244/creative-destruction . To get to the renegade page directly, go to http://24.69.62.244/creative-destruction/games/renegade/main.htm (best veiwed in 1024x740).
But as soon as I find the domain registration papers it will be http://www.creative-destruction.com (I dunno if it'll let you add the /all-the-other-stuff because my host is lazy and something wasn't configured...I'm switching hosts eventually).
-Thanks, CDS Staff
