Just wondering do any clans have regular (at least once a month) matches with 15 or more players on each team?

If so what are the games like ?
Quick, deadlocked, boring, fun...

Any new tactics come out specifically because of the large "Co-ordinated" teams?

8 on 8 is the standard, 6 on 6 is considered fun, anything lower than 6 on 6 is a joke. I prefer 10 on 10.

What are you talking about 2v2 - 4v4 is the majority of clan games played.
5v5 - 8v8 is fun but rare

10v10 - 12v12 is the highest ive played in
Unless you count the clanwars allstar game that was 22v22 and they could only be won on points.

10 v 10 - is a pretty regular occurance fo our clan. They are a nice size so you get some big battles, but small enough so its still possible to destroy the enemy base.

Gamespy games are larger cause there is no limit. The best size of clan games is 4v4-7v7.
Anything less is fine and bigger just can turn into a ladder whore game.
